

The Martial Arts of India

A. Name these martial arts using the help box.

Musti-Yuddha

Gatka

Mardani Khel

Thoda

Silambattam

Lathi Khela

Pari-Khanda

Kalaripayattu

Thang Ta

1. This martial art from Kerala is one of the oldest in the world and uses fast kicks, jumps and weapons. Kalaripayattu

2. This martial art from Tamil Nadu uses long bamboo sticks and teaches balance, speed and spinning moves.

3. Practiced in Punjab, this is a sword-fighting art used by Sikh warriors with quick and graceful moves.

4. This martial art from Manipur uses swords and spears in a style that looks like dancing but is meant for battle.

5. Popular in Bihar, West Bengal and Uttar Pradesh, this is a stick-fighting method used for defense and police training.

6. From Maharashtra, this martial art was used by Maratha warriors and includes fighting with swords and spears.

7. An old style of boxing from Uttar Pradesh that uses fists and quick movements to fight.

8. A martial art from Himachal Pradesh that combines archery with dance and is performed during local festivals.

9. This martial art from Bihar uses swords and shields and was once used by soldiers in ancient battles.

Famous Paintings

Name the painting using the help box.

The Night Watch

The Persistence of Memory

Mona Lisa

The Scream

American Gothic

The Umbrellas

Five Horses

Guernica

Starry Night

Shakuntala

Girl with a Pearl Earring

Water Lilies

1. A lady with a mysterious smile by Leonardo da Vinci

Mona Lisa

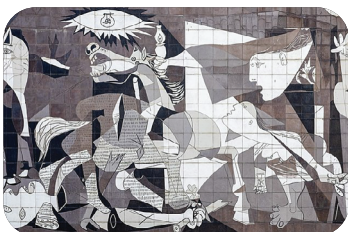

2. A girl wearing a shiny pearl earring by Johannes Vermeer

3. A person shouting under a wavy, colourful sky by Edvard Munch

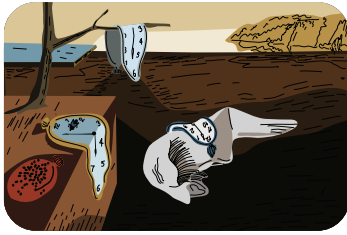

4. A beautiful night sky full of swirling stars by Vincent van Gogh

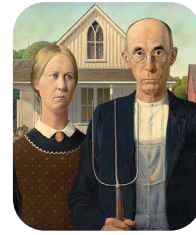

5. A black-and-white painting showing the sadness of war by Pablo Picasso

6. A painting with melting clocks in a strange dream world by Salvador Dalí

7. A farmer and his daughter standing in front of a house by Grant Wood

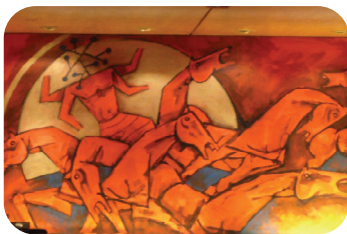

8. Peaceful flowers floating on a pond by Claude Monet.

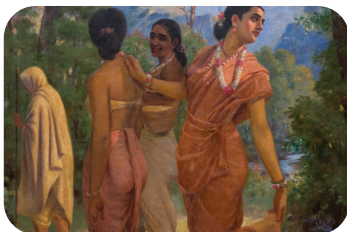

9. Soldiers getting ready to go out by Rembrandt

10. Bold and fast-moving horses painted in bright colours by MF Husain

11. People walking in the rain with umbrellas in soft colours by Pierre-Auguste Renoir

12. A lady pretending to pick a thorn while secretly looking for the man she loves by Raja Ravi Varma