

UNESCO Monuments in India

Tick (✓) the correct answer. The first one is done for you.

1. This site in Maharashtra is known for its ancient rock-cut Buddhist temples and paintings depicting the life of the Buddha.

☐

a. Kailashanatha Cav

☒

b. Ajanta Caves

☐

c. Elephanta Caves

2. This monument made of white marble houses the tombs of a Mughal Empress and Emperor.

☐

a. Qutb Minar

☐

b. Taj Mahal

☐

c. Red Fort

3. This historical city in Uttar Pradesh was the capital of Emperor Akbar for a short period and is famous for its blend of Islamic and Indian architecture.

☐

a. Agra

☐

b. Fatehpur Sikri

☐

c. Delhi

4. This site in Bihar is where Gautama Buddha is said to have attained enlightenment.

☐

a. Sarnath

☐

b. Bodh Gaya

☐

c. Lumbini

5. This temple in Konark, Odisha, represents the Sun God Surya in the form of a chariot with 24 wheels and six horses.

☐

a. Sun Temple

☐

b. Meenakshi Temple

☐

c. Brihadeeswarar Temple

6. Built by the rulers of the Chola dynasty, this UNESCO site in Tamil Nadu is known for its grand architecture and intricate sculptures.

- ☐ a. Meenakshi Temple
☐ b. Brihadeeswarar Temple
☐ c. Ramappa Temple

7. This intricately carved stepwell in Patan, Gujarat, was built in the 11th century and is a brilliant example of the effectiveness of traditional methods of water management in India.

- ☐ a. Rani-ki-Vav
☐ b. Sanchi Stupa
☐ c. Qutb Minar

8. This ancient city in Karnataka is home to ruins of temples and palaces from the Vijayanagara Empire.

- ☐ a. Hampi
☐ b. Badami
☐ c. Halebidu

9. This UNESCO World Heritage Site in Madhya Pradesh features prehistoric rock shelters that contain some of the world's oldest cave paintings.

- ☐ a. Bhimbetka Rock Shelters
☐ b. Ajanta Caves
☐ c. Khajuraho Temples

10. This ancient Buddhist complex, known for its intricately carved gateways, is one of the most important Buddhist sites in India.

- ☐ a. Bodh Gaya
☐ b. Sanchi Stupa
☐ c. Ajanta Caves

11. These 7th and 8th century rock-cut temples, including the Shore Temple, are a part of a UNESCO World Heritage site and represent early Dravidian architecture.

- ☐ a. Mahabalipuram Monuments
☐ b. Brihadeeswarar Temples
☐ c. Konark Sun Temple

Artificial Intelligence

Complete these statements using the help box. The first one is done for you.

smart search

face recognition

streaming platforms

weather prediction

medical diagnosis

voice assistants

object detection

email spam filtering

grammar

fraud detection

online shopping

sentiment analysis

chatbots

directions

spelling

1. AI-powered voice assistants such as Siri and Alexa can play music, set alarms and answer questions upon hearing your verbal instructions.

2. Smartphones use software to scan your face and unlock your device securely.

3. In hospitals, AI is used in to detect diseases early by analyzing X-rays and reports.

4. websites use AI to suggest items based on what you have searched or purchased.

5. Companies use to understand the feelings behind online reviews or social media posts.

6. On shopping or help websites, let you ask questions and give us instant answers like a human would.
-

7. When you write an essay, AI tools help you fix your mistakes and improve your
-

8. helps search engines understand what you are looking for, even if you type the words incorrectly.
-

9. Banks use to detect strange or suspicious activity on your account to protect you from scams.
-

10. works behind the scenes in your email to keep junk or dangerous messages out of your inbox.
-

11. technology allows AI to recognize people, pets, vehicles or traffic signs using cameras.
-

12. When you are travelling, AI can give you accurate to help you reach your destination quickly.
-

13. use AI to suggest movies or TV shows you might enjoy.
-

14. AI-based systems use satellite data and historical patterns to predict storms, rain, and other weather phenomena.