

Story Time

Aunty Tara has come to visit me during my holidays. I love spending time with Aunty. I have planned to take her for a walk around my neighbourhood.

“Aunty Tara, let’s go for a walk. I want to show you all the places near my house. I will show you my school, the park, Chandu uncle’s shop, Dr. Kumar’s clinic, the fire station and much more...”

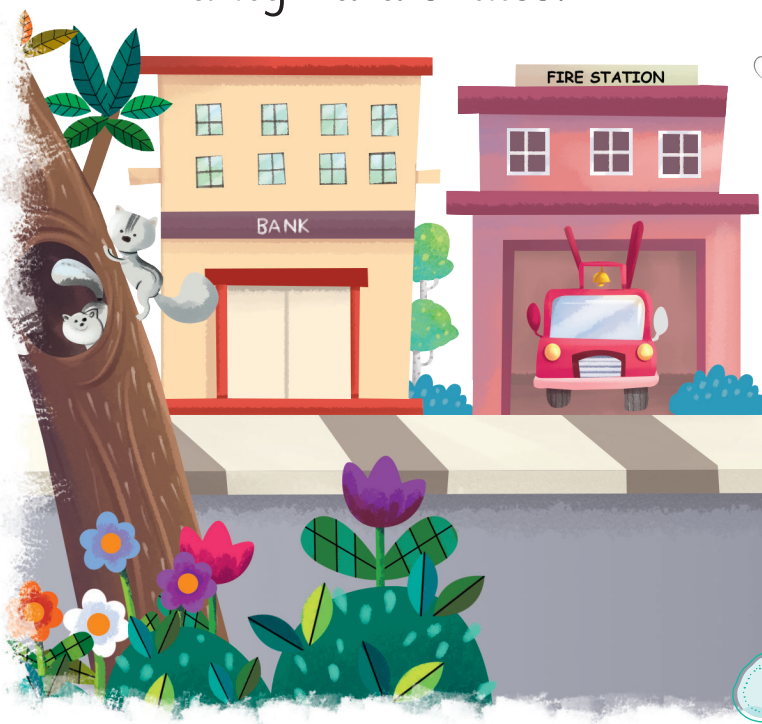

“Haha! Okay, Pooja. Let’s go!” says Aunty Tara.

First, I take Aunty Tara to my school.

“This is my school. That is the bank that Ma visits. I know Gupta uncle there. He gives us money from the bank.”

“Ah! That’s really nice of Mr. Gupta,” Aunty Tara smiles.

“That’s the fire station. Our teacher took us to see a fire engine one day.”

And that's the mall. Can we go shopping now?"

"No, not right now, your Ma and Pa will be waiting for us."

"Oh, okay... then let me show you Chandu uncle's shop. Come, come..."

SHOPPING MALL

"That is Chandu uncle. We get rice, dal, flour and many other things from him."

CHANDU'S KIRANA

“Aunty Tara, that’s the hospital. Dr. Kumar’s clinic is next to the hospital. He is my favourite doctor. Every time I visit him, he gives me a lollipop.”

“I must visit him for a lollipop too!” Aunty Tara laughs.

“We get our mava cake from Pinto uncle’s bakery. Anita aunty makes lovely dresses. That’s Bansi bhaiya’s shop. He fixes our shoes for us. And this is Firoz uncle, he makes tables and chairs.”

“I love your neighbourhood. But Pooja, did you see how important the helpers around your neighbourhood are! They help us in so many ways.”

Look at the pictures below. Talk to your friend in your home language. Tell them how these people help us.

