WORKSHEET A

1. Read this passage and answer the questions.

One day, Biju went to the forest to collect firewood.

Biju raised his axe to chop down a tree.

“Don’t cut me down, please!” said the tree. “I’m a coconut tree. I give you coconuts to eat, leaves to make roofs and husk to make ropes.”

“You give us so many things!” said Biju. “I won’t hurt you.”

Biju saw many trees in the forest but every tree told him why he should not chop it down.

The neem tree gives us leaves and bark to make medicines.

The teak tree gives us wood to make chairs and beds.

The peepal tree gives shelter to birds and animals.

At last, Biju said, “All these trees help us in so many ways.

It’s wrong to chop them down. I’ll just gather the branches that have fallen from the trees for my fire.”
