

BOOK NOOK

Urdu Crime Fiction, 1890–1950: An Informal History

by CM Naim

Urdu crime writers capture the new material realities of urban India—from the ‘exotic’ mannequins, latex masks and ‘truth-serum’ to the everyday advertisements, gramophones and cameras.