

BACKFLAP

RESERVATION POLICY IN INDIA

by Narender Kumar & Sudhir Kumar Suthat.

Orient BlackSwan.

Pages 144

Another one in the Orient Black Swan * Policy Studies' series, this book provides an overview of the reservation policy developed by the government and its underlying philosophy, and traces its history from colonial India to the present day. The authors argue that the objective of the reservation policy is to ensure social justice and representation of marginalised communities and groups in India, economic outcomes being just one aspect of these wider objectives.